14 DAY MEDITERRANEAN RENAISSANCE CRUISE

October 21st – November 4th, 2012

We have confirmed our group onboard Celebrity Cruiseline's currently under construction Solstice Class ship, Celebrity Reflection on a 14 day voyage from Barcelona, Spain to Venice, Italy. This will be Reflection's first official visit to these ports and her second sailing ever. (Don't you just love that "new ship" smell?) We will cruise and visit Mediterranean and Adriatic ports of call in Spain, France, Italy, Greece, Turkey and Slovenia. Again, Sue and I will reluctantly (Are you kidding?) accompany the group for this combination of Mediterranean classics as well as some very interesting less traveled exotic European destinations.

This will be Reflection's first cruise to these ports and only her second voyage ever after launching from Amsterdam on her maiden voyage only two weeks before arriving to pick us up in exciting Barcelona, Spain. She is fifth in the line of CELEBRITY'S Solstice Class cruise ships and will be the most luxurious and innovative of the series.

At the end of the cruise we recommend you join us for a couple of additional nights in Venice since there is so much to see and do in this wonderful historic city of canals. Cruisetours (land tours before and after the cruise) are also available for this adventure however will not be travel agent accompanied. Call us for more details or special requirements.
